

Song of the Three 35-65

Nancy Raabe

$\text{♩} = 120$
Lively, percussive

First time only: Cantor, then all

f

Bless the Lord, all you

works of the Lord; sing praise to him and high-ly ex-alt him for-ev-er.

Somewhat slower; smoother $\text{♩} = 96$ Cantor

mp

Bless the Lord, you heavens, you an-gels of the Lord, all you powers, sun, and moon, stars of heav-en. Bless the Lord, rain and dew, winds and fire, win-ter cold and

Song of the Three Young Men

2

18

sum - mer heat, dews and fal - - - ling snow. Bless the 22

Lord nights and days, light and dark - ness, ice and cold, frosts and snows,

27

Lively, percussive ♩ = 120
All

light - nings and clouds. Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord; sing

31

praise to him and high - ly ex - alt him for - ev - er.

Song of the Three Young Men

♩ = 96

Cantor

34

Let the earth bless the Lord, mountains and hills; bless the Lord, all that grows in the

mf

40

ground; bless the Lord, seas and rivers, springs and all that swim, all

♩ = 120

All

45

birds of the air, all wild animals. Bless the Lord, all you

f

49

works of the Lord; sing praise to him and highly exalt him forever.

Song of the Three Young Men

4
53 $\text{♩} = 96$
Cantor

Bless the Lord, all peo - ple on earth, O Is - ra - el, you priests of the 59

Lord, you ser - vants, you spi - rits and souls of the right - eous, you ho - ly,

65 $\text{♩} = 120$
rit. All a tempo

hum - ble in heart. Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord; sing praise to him and high - ly ex - alt him for - ev - er.

69